(Informational Bulletin for benefactors, and all interested in reconstruction of the church - Shrine in Buszcze.)

Dear Benefactors!

New information from Buszcze. Month of July now coming very important month for Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary church in Buszcze, making new history of reconstructed parish.

Last year on July 26, 2015 Our Lady return to Buszcze as copied Icon. For over 300 years, since Icon was brought from Italy; Our Lady was reigning on Buszcze Hill till spring of 1944, when Icon have to run away with pastor and parishioners on exile to hospitable Raclawice on Opole region of Salesia, where is honored and respected.

After 71 years on exile, Our Lady coming back to that place; now in Ukraine to be honored and respected by people who live here now and others who coming here from other places; bringing to her their problems, troubles, joys and thanksgiving, and also asking her for help and protection.

This year on Sunday July 31; two Icons (O.L. of Buszcze and Icon screen Annunciation of B.V.M.); painted by very talented artists: Sergij Soldatiuk from Luck, northern Ukraine with help of his son Roman; with very beautiful golden plated Robe will be placed into new High Altar, constructed according to old photos of that Altar, by Eugene Fulek from Poland.

Dedication of the new High Altar is planned on Sunday, at 4.00pm Ukrainian time; by His Excellency Bishop Stanislaw Szyrokoradiuk of Kharkiv – Zaporizhia (eastern Ukraine), in the presence of his Excellency Bishop Leo Maly, auxiliary bishop of Archdiocese of Lvov, invited priests and faithful.

Many people were waiting for that moment very long. Thanks to your generosity, their dream will be change into reality shortly.
